19th and 20th September 2018
National Museum Cardiff, Wales

FREE EVENT
OPEN FOR BOOKINGS SOON

#WBPCConf2018

Join us for:

- Updates and initiatives to promote biodiversity and ecosystem resilience in Wales
- Informative plenary talks with a range of speakers
- Interactive sessions, workshops, exhibition stalls and more
- Networking, collaboration and sharing of best practice
- Inspiring exhibitions at the National Museum

We invite proposals for talks, workshops, posters and exhibition stalls that are topical, informative and relevant to Wales. Please email us with a short abstract (max 250 words) by the 19th June

Anyone with an interest in biodiversity and ecosystem action in Wales is welcome to attend to discuss, share ideas and collaborate on biodiversity and ecosystem action in Wales. Key players from the public, private and voluntary sectors will be in attendance and the conference is delighted to welcome the Minister for Environment, Hannah Blythyn on the morning of day one. Delegates are welcome to attend the conference on both days or a day of their choice.
